

Community Manager

Role

- Support communications team in social media and general outreach
- Planning and executing regular, engaging, goal driven social content
- Expanding and developing Saito's developer community
  - Reporting on developer experience, issues and difficulties to development management
  - Working to numerical goals for developer engagement and contribution
  - Supporting development hiring efforts
- Building Saito's broader user and fanbase
  - Engaging with Fans and Followers to build relationships with the community and encourage engagement
  - Working to numerical goals for engagement scope and user numbers
  - Providing user feedback and insight to product and development teams
- Reporting on community engagement activities role within marketing and communications
- Support general PR goals including crisis management
- Monitor and actively prevent existence of scams and misinformation within the community and social media channels

Background

- Experience in social media marketing, community development or a major open source project
- Quick learner with blockchain, or open development project experience a plus
- Must have an exceptional grasp of social media and its role in groups and community, and how to leverage this to engage and excite
- Degree or 3+ years experience in IT or Marketing in a technical organisation

Remuneration

Base Salary: to be discussed

Generous Token/Equity Package

Benefits:

Health and Travel Insurance

Relocation costs considered.